THE Queen's Birthday was calebrated in Hongkong yesterday in the usual orthodox May, and is due here on or about the fashion. The men-of-war of all nationalilies and some of the merchant vessels were dressed, and the customary Royal salute expected here on or about the 21st was fired at noon. In the afternoon there was the usual military parade. which was witnessed by a large crowd among those present being the Hoppo of Canton. The troops, on entering the enclo-sure, were formed into line to receive Major-General Edwards, who, accompanied by his staff, arrived shortly after five o'clock. About fifteen minutes afterwards His Excellency the Acting Governor arrived and was received with the general salute. The usual few-de-joie was then fired, consisting of twenty-one rounds verpool, left Singapore yesterday afternoon from a battery of field guns under the charge of gun lascars, and three rounds by the troops forming the line. This was followed by three ringing cheers for Her Majesty. Thereafter the troops formed into companies, marched past and then advanced in line. The Highlanders were in kilts, with white jackets and belmets, the Engineers, and Artillery and the Sikhs being in their ordinary summer uniform. After the parade a Te Deum service was held at the R. C. Cathedral His Excellency the Acting Governor and a large number of residents attended. In the evening a ball was given at Government House, the grounds of which were illumi nated. MANY MISSIONARIES INJURED. The Shanghai Mercury of 16th inst. Bays The Missionary Conference narrowly escaped ending in a outastrophe. One of the strangest accidents that ever occurred in Shanghai will be associated with the Conference of 1890. It had been arranged that the entire Conference, numbering some four hundred and fifty persons, should be phot graphed together before dispersing again to their widely separated fields of labour; and we believe that it was originally intended that the photographs would be taken to morrow. But it was afterwards found that many of the missionaries had to leave Shanghai to-day or to morrow, and the time was changed to this afternoon after tiffin, when the entire Conforence proceeded to Saundera Compound, in the middle of which a high baniboo platform, consisting of six or seven tiers, with planked standing places, had been erected, by Mr. Delorme, the photographer who had the contract.
